45 Years to Life in State Prison for Murdering 20 Year Old Woman and Stabbing Two Victims

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares today announced that MICHAEL ANDERSON, 29, of Albany, was sentenced to 45 years to Life in State Prison before the Honorable Stephen Herrick in Albany County Court this morning.

On February 3, 2014, ANDERSON pleaded guilty to (1) Count of Murder in the Second Degree, a Class A-I Felony, and (2) Counts of Assault in the First Degree, both Class B Violent Felonies.

On November 26, 2012 at 157 Myrtle Avenue in the City of Albany, the defendant did intentionally cause the death of Tonette Thomas, 20, by means of repeatedly stabbing her with a knife. In addition, the defendant also repeatedly stabbed two other victims with a knife.

“This sentence brings to a conclusion one of the most tragic events in our community, but it also shines a bright light on domestic violence. Domestic violence is about power and control. Verbal or physical abuse does not equate to love. Albany County has a strong network of support services for people experiencing these crimes. Mr. Anderson will pay for his crimes for the rest of his life, but look at the expense; a beautiful life of a young woman whose contributions to the world we were just beginning to witness,” commented District Attorney Soares.

This case was prosecuted by Special Victims Unit Bureau Chief Shannon Sarfoh.
