Assailant Found Guilty in Albany Robbery Case

ALBANY, NY – District Attorney P. David Soares today announced that MAHTEEK TERRY, 32, of Albany, was found guilty after a jury trial of (1) Count of Attempted Assault in the First Degree, a Class C Violent Felony, and (2) Counts of Robbery in the Second Degree, each Class C Violent Felonies, before the Honorable William A. Carter in Albany County Court this afternoon.

After hearing witness testimony and reviewing the presented evidence at trial, the jury found that on August 4, 2018, at approximately 3:30 AM, at a convenience store on Quail Street in the City of Albany, TERRY attempted to cause serious physical injury to the victim by kicking him in the face and punching him repeatedly. When the victim became unconscious, TERRY aided another individual in forcibly stealing the victim's wallet. The victim was taken to the hospital and treated for their injuries.

TERRY remains in custody at the Albany County Correctional Facility without bail, pending sentencing. TERRY faces up to 15 years in State Prison, to be followed by 5 years of Post-Release Supervision, when sentenced on March 27, 2019.

Assistant District Attorney Michael Shanley of the Major Offense Unit is handling the prosecution of this case.
