Drunk Driver Found Guilty in Guilderland

ALBANY, NY - District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that SARA J. HERRERO, 39, of Clifton Park, was found guilty after bench trial of (2) Counts of Driving While Intoxicated, both Misdemeanors, before the Honorable Judge John Bailey in Guilderland Town Court yesterday afternoon.

On July 8, 2012, at approximately 3:00 P.M., HERRERO struck a delineator pole while merging on to the Eastbound lanes of Exit 29 on I-90 in the Town of Guilderland. Debris from the crash hit the vehicle of a nearby driver. The victim was able to call the police and members of the New York State Police responded. Officers placed HERRERO under arrest after she repeatedly failed field sobriety testing and was found to have a .11 % blood alcohol level after a Datamaster Breathalyzer test.

HERRERO faces up to 1 year in local jail when sentenced on November 10, 2016.

Criminal Law Associate Collin D'Arcy and Assistant District Attorney Dennis DiBari of the Major Crimes Unit handled the prosecution of this case.
