Sex Offender Found Guilty for Failing to Register Address For a Second Time

ALBANY, NY- District Attorney P. David Soares announced today that GARY CARDEN, 52, of Albany, was found guilty after a jury trial of (1) Count of Failure to Register as a Sex Offender, a Class D Felony, before the Honorable Stephen W. Herrick in Albany County Court today.

CARDEN is a New York State Level 2 Registered Sex Offender and did fail to notify the Albany Police Department, the Division of Criminal Justice Services, or any other lawfully reporting agencies, within 10 days of his change of address from when he moved in January 2015. At trial, proof showed that CARDEN resided in the City of Albany between January 15, 2015 and the beginning of May 2015, without reporting his address as mandated under state law.

This is CARDEN's second conviction for Failing to Register as a Sex Offender, as he previously failed to register his address in 2003.

In 1995 CARDEN was convicted of (1) Count of Rape in the Second Degree, a Class D Felony, in the City of Albany and was designated a Level 2 Sex Offender.

CARDEN faces 2 1/3 to 7 years in State Prison when sentenced on March 30, 2016.

Assistant District Attorney Ariel Fallon of the Special Victims Unit is prosecuting this case.
